

Our Adventures on Feldberg

In a wonderful week in July, we all went to the train station and had to wait a few minutes for the train. Then we must say goodbye to our mums, dads, brothers and sisters, we all felt a little bit sad, but we all know we will have a good time on the Feldberg. The time runs and soon we were in lake Titisee. Then after a break, we went to our last stop "the bus ". Soon we all were in the hotel. Finally, we were there. It was a big hotel, there was many rooms for girls and boys! We carried our bags in our rooms and look at our new home. I had a room with Fiona and Anna-Christina. The room was small but nice too! There was a room to eat and to play and a garden. At the evening we all had to go to bed.

The next days we did things like find insects (I find one of the biggest in the class), finding places who were choosed from our teachers, play games, have some calls from our parents, eat yummy food and have fun to have a Junior Ranger Introduction. In the Junior Ranger Introduction we did learn what a Ranger had to do, how to be friendly to the nature and they show us a plant that can eat insects. Also they show us a picture of a rare plant that lives in the sea.

The best of the trip was the walk on the high mountain Feldberg. At the beginning we met a monument called Bismarckdenkmal. Bismarck was a german politician. After that we went to the broadcast tower Feldbergturm. It was big and it looked like a lighthouse. Next we walked a little bit to a place, where we took a rest. Later we had to decide between an easy or a difficult route. I went on the difficult, first I was slow but a few minutes later I run fast the downhill down. That was really funny. Then we had an small break. We ate some food, some guys bought ice cream. After that the other group finally arrived. We walked together to our last stop: the lake Feldsee. Here happened something funny: Marit gave some bread to the fish. And many of them came very quickly. It was cool. The day was very special. I will never forget it.

At the last day we packed our bags and pulled the beds off. We carried our bags to the bus station. Finally we got into the bus and said good bye to the Feldberg. After that we had to change to the train. At the end of the train journey we arrived in Rottenburg. Our families were waiting for us. The class trip was over. We went home with a lot of experiences and good memories.
